PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violation contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court on 09/09/2010.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition of supervision:

Violation Number      Nature of Noncompliance

4

Mandatory Condition #1: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state or local crime.Supporting Evidence: The offender was arrested on August 11, 2010, for second degree driving while license suspended while she was on home detention.

A criminal history records check was completed on Amanda Cook on September 10, 2010. The records check revealed that the defendant was cited for second degree driving with license suspended by the Spokane Valley Sheriff's Office. The police report indicates that they were called to investigate a potential domestic violence order violation. Upon contacting Ms. Cook, it was determined that her driver's license was revoked. The defendant was cited for the violation and an arraignment was held on August 26, 2010. The defendant was on home confinement and did not have permission to be away from her residence at the time of this offense. This incident occurred at Sprague and Havana in Spokane, Washington. The defendant lives at 1314 East Queen. Ms. Cook did not notify the United States Probation Office of her contact with law enforcement.
